

Ashley Bosch ('89) was featured in the South Florida Business Journal for being chosen as a recipient of the "40 Under 40 Awards" which honors individuals under 40 who have achieved career success and given back to the community. Ashley is currently the President of BLOK Urban Development and is the President of the Builders Association of South Florida.

Andrew Carricarte ('97) was featured in the South Florida Business Journal for sharing his views on the federal stimulus package for the health care sector. Andrew is currently the President and CEO of IOS Health Systems.

John Couriel ('96) has returned to Miami as an Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of Florida. After graduating from Columbus, John attended Harvard University and Harvard Law School, then served as law clerk to the Honorable John D. Bates of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. In 2004, he joined Davis Polk & Wardwell, a New York law firm, where he practiced until his recent appointment. John is married to Rebecca L. Toonkel M.D.

Joseph Fernandez ('80) was featured in American Way Magazine for being selected among the best orthopedic surgeons in America.

Fr. Miguel Gonzalez ('86) was featured in the spring/summer issue of Ahora Orlando Magazine as one of the 25 Most Influential Hispanics in the City of Orlando. Fr. Miguel is part of the original winners which appeared in the Fall/Winter 2005 issue.

Richard John Lopez ('83) has become the General Manager of the new Florida Winter Baseball League's Team: The Miami Diamantes. The league's opening day will be October 30th in Miami at the FIU Baseball Stadium. The league, which caters to the Rookie and Single A level professional baseball market, hopes to become the "preferred US alternative" to Latin and Caribbean winter league baseball. Lopez is responsible for the day to day operation of the Miami franchise and the marketing of his team and the league as a whole. For more information log onto miamidiamantes.com

Cesar Santalo ('89) created this year's poster artwork for the Cuba Nostalgia Exhibition. The poster featured a collage of the Freedom Tower made up of pictures of important figures of our community. He was also chosen as one of the artists for the City of Miami's Art in Public Places project; Gibson's Miami Guitar Town. His guitar sculptures will be placed throughout Downtown Miami in front of city landmarks and businesses later this year.